One week only!

for children ages 7-16

Tennis & Swim Camp

Monday July 13 through Friday, July 17

Directed by Corky Cramer, USPTA Pro
& the CorTennis Staff

Individual Achievement & Pride

Your child can participate in the 'sport of kings' taught by the coach who has helped Jewish children realize their dreams and become members of the U.S. & Canadian Maccabi Teams.

This fantastic week includes 15 hours of tennis instruction & court time and 10 hours of recreational swimming fun!

Tuition is only $325.00 per child.

JCC's Tennis/Swim Camp

Directed by Corky Cramer &
the CorTennis Staff

Five mornings of tennis instruction and court time designed to meet the needs of beginners & competitive players, and five afternoons of fun in the pool.

Monday July, 13 - Friday July 17 9:00 am - 3:00 pm
Santa Rosa High School Tennis Courts & Ridgway Swim Center

Whether your child dreams of reaching a place like student Daniel Nestor, the 2007 #1 ranked doubles player or they just want to play a sport for the fun of it, our JCC CorTennis Camp will help them achieve their goals. The JCC CorTennis program is designed to build healthy bodies, minds, self-esteem and tennis skills to enjoy for a lifetime.

racquet head is prepared early and up for maximum variety and power eyes are focused on the target "the ball"

left arm reaches across the body to facilitate the shoulder turn and aid in tracking the ball

a large step provides for a stable base to unleash a powerful swing

Assistant Coach Henry Hasegawa's classic down-the-line forehand, on the run

"All tennis players are not created equally but all players should be coached equally"
